

In Our Hands

“If a community values it’s children, it must cherish it’s parents and carers”

Working Together Event For the Children of Walsall with SEND

As a parent or carer of a child with additional needs, we invite you to come and join us at one of these events, as we work together to shape the services and future for the children of Walsall with SEND.

We want you to be a part of the plan. We are committed to working together and keeping you involved, with follow up sessions planned for February and May 2023.

Please can we ask all attendees to book a free ticket using the Eventbrite link under the venue of your choice:
