

10

Religion and Conflict Case Study Second World War

- War: Conscientious Objectors
- Forgiveness
- Reconciliation
- Non-violent protest

11

Religion and Our World

- Equality
- Prejudice and injustice
- Wealth and Poverty
- Social Responsibility
- The Media
- The Environment and Stewardship
- Animal Rights: Why and how animals should be protected
- Animal Rights: The law in the UK and contrasting views across the globe

12

Religion and Relationship

- Marriage: Arranged marriage and forced marriage
- Separation and Divorce, and how religious communities approach this
- Roles of men and women; a look from both a secular and religious perspective and how attitudes have changed over time

13

Religion and Human Experience

- Freud "Religion is an illusion"; did humans invent religion?
- Marx: "Religion is the opium of the people"; does religion ease the pain we experience in life?
- The Problem of Evil – Is it ever possible to explain why evil exists?
- Suffering and how we respond to it: Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind